Dear Mr Gee

Thank you for your email of 26 October 2017 regarding issues you have had with the Plumbers Board.

I acknowledge the difficulty this situation has caused for you. However, as a Minister of the Crown, it would be inappropriate for me to intervene in this matter. I understand that you have been in discussions with my officials at the Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment (the Ministry) regarding this matter. I have forwarded your correspondence and a copy of my response to the Ministry for their reference.

I note that you have also raised concerns about the regulation of gasfitting work under gas regulations. While I have responsibilities for the occupational regulation of gasfitters, the regulation of gasfitting work is the responsibility of Hon Iain Lees-Galloway, Minister for Workplace Relations and Safety. I have forwarded a copy of your letter and my response to Minister Lees-Galloway.

Thank you for taking the time to write to me.

Yours sincerely,
